

You'll Never Walk Alone

Rodgers and Hammerstein

When you walk through a storm

Hold your head up high

And don't be afraid of the dark.

At the end of the storm

Is a golden sky

And the sweet silver song of a lark.

Walk on through the wind,

Walk on through the rain,

Tho' your dreams be tossed and blown.

Walk on, walk on

With hope in the LORD *

And you'll never walk alone,

You'll never walk alone.

I would like to sing this song after the lesson today. It is a much-loved classic that goes along with the sermon this morning. I have changed two words that are highlighted. The original version speaks of hope in your heart, but true hope must come from the LORD if it is going to bring comfort to our hearts. After all He is the one who gives us our hearts, but He does let us tune our hearts to whatever we wish. Peter gives us the key to tuning our hearts.

...but in your hearts honor Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect. 1Peter 3:15

And we have the prophetic word more fully confirmed, to which you will do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. 2 Peter 1:19
