

In The Twinkling Of An Eye

By H. L. Gradowith

In the twinkling of an eye time will end here,
In the twinkling of an eye no more sin here...
In the twinkling of an eye to Him we'll fly:
In that precious, longed for twinkling of an eye!

He'll appear before us on that final morn,
When He comes into a new world we'll be born;
On that morning He'll open the eastern sky:
In that precious, longed for twinkling of an eye!

He'll remove the mem'ries of troubles then past,
His Arms will shelter us from all harm at last;
We'll enter the Wonderful Sweet By and By...
In that precious, longed for twinkling of an eye!

We'll behold that Wonderful City Foursquare,
How beautiful ev'rything will be up there;
No more tribulations and no more to die:
In that precious, longed for twinkling of an eye!

Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed.
